

My question is "How would you explain ' why for optimizing a functional the langrange multiplier for a function constraint should be a function' to a person ,starting from the significance(the physical meaning) of lagrange multiplier for optimization of a function?"